

NJC RECOGNITION AWARD

NJC 75TH ANNIVERSARY AWARDS

AWARD NOMINATION FORM

The National Joint Council (NJC) is celebrating its 75th anniversary in 2019. This auspicious occasion provides an opportunity to recognize employer and bargaining agent members who have made an effort to improve the workplace across the federal public service.

Any member of the National Joint Council (NJC) or of a constituent body of the NJC, any Departmental or Agency Liaison Officers, or the General Secretary, may nominate a candidate who meets one or more of the following criteria of excellence:

- Leading or facilitating innovative approaches to co-development or consultation that improve the effectiveness of the NJC.
- Making a special contribution towards improving relations between the parties within an NJC process.
- Communicating and promoting the value of co-operative processes based on NJC experience, and/or raising the profile of the NJC within the public service.
- Improving the capacity of the NJC to serve and support the interests of the parties and the public service.
- Developing/sharing best practices, learning tools and knowledge of approaches to labour-management co-operation.
- Providing professional and/or administrative support to NJC processes.
